

In brief Send your news and events to lee.sobot@yppn.co.uk

Racing: Three Yorkshire courses are among the top 11 in the country for a great race day experience. The list compiled by the Racecourse Association (RCA) named Beverley, Wetherby and York among the top performing courses in England and Wales during 2019. Assessors from LiveTourism (for England Wales) or VisitScotland visit each racecourse to assess the day's experience for visitors. On the list with Beverley, Wetherby and York are Aintree, Ascot, Cheltenham, Chester, Newbury, Newmarket (July) and Wincanton. In Scotland Ayr, Hamilton Park and Musselburgh all retained their five-star rating with Perth keeping four stars. RCA Excellence Accolades were also presented to racecourses which achieved outstanding scores in specific areas with both Wetherby and York taking awards for Fast Food Outlet – Sweet Shop at Wetherby and Eat Between Our Races at York – and Staff Customer Service. York was also commended for its Visitor Information & Signage. Paul Swain, the RCA's brand & experience manager, said he was thrilled to see so many racecourses get the recognition they deserved. LiveTourism director, Mandy Lane said the assessments highlighted the great work achieved in customer experience.

Eventing: Louise Jack and William Cursham have been announced as British Eventing's two new non-executive board directors. Chairman Fiona O'Hara said: "I am delighted that Louise and William are joining. Their combined skills and experience will be put to good use across IT, change

DOING THE TREBLE: Charlotte Dujardin had a successful weekend at Addington.

Dressage: Charlotte Dujardin excelled with a fine treble at Addington High Profile Show. Dujardin proved victorious on Grand Prix debutante and reigning National Inter II Champion, Gio, who the rider first spotted when teaching at a clinic in California in 2016. Her pupil, Amelie name of Pumpkin when arriving with Dujardin around Halloween. As part of a fine day at Addington, Dujardin also dominated last Saturday's Small Tour classes with Mount St John Valencia, taking the Fairfax Saddles Prix St Georges and Saracen Horse Feeds Intermediate. The ten-year-